Summary:

This project is aimed at training process and the ways in which the media can get closer to the young people through non-formal education methodology.

Part of the project refers to a project carried out by the hosting organization "Radio forum E-volution." /www.e-volutionradio.com/ In this regard, volunteers will enrich the work of the Radio Forum with cultural topics, social issues and educational opportunities from their background. They will become part of the radio team and will get some journalistic skills. This Online platform will be developed by the volunteers experience and they would help to establish long term partnerships with local youth and partner organizations. The idea of this web radio platform is to increase the active citizenship and political and European awareness of the young people involved in it, while getting them closer to the journalistic work. The participants will develop their sensitivity on the important issues and topics of the nowadays life in this very variable world.

During the voluntary service repeatedly as a creative process during weekly meetings the volunteers will be able to show the culture, art, history and language in treir countries -during also the forum theater meetings. This will expand the horizons of the target group of the project from the local community and will allow for bilateral cultural exchanges with it.

In the project "Radio E-volution - Mission Veliko Tarnovo" will participate seven EVS volunteers from different Program countries.

The project includes 4 people and will be implemented in the period 1stof May 2019 -30thof April 2020 (12 months)

The last video is made by EVS volunteers in Bulgaria. One of them was in our organization. It is important -Bulgaria is a bit different than the other EU countries -both in a positive and negative way. Not to have some dissapointments and different expectations. The volunteers can do really good work here and have a lot of fun, but if they focus on the bad sides might be not satisfied.
